Tips for Using Supporting Facts and Details

- Select supporting facts and details that fit the situation and make the point you want to make.
- Check support facts and details for accuracy.
- Identify the source of your supporting facts and details if there is one.
- Supporting facts and details should be included in a meaningful order only if they help make a point or supply evidence in support of a reason.
- Organize facts and examples so they work together to build a strong case for your point of view.
